

Media Statement

Stewart Pieper
Acting General Superintendent
Queensland Baptists

1 March 2019

Queensland Baptists joins the National Redress Scheme

Queensland Baptists as a denomination have made the decision to join the National Redress Scheme for people who have experienced institutional child sexual abuse. Our individual member churches have been invited to formally join the Queensland Baptists Participating Group. We anticipate that the completion of these processes will allow us to make application to join the National Redress Scheme by the second term of 2019.