

Queensland Baptists COVID-19 Update 30 March 2020

The current health crisis has seen a number of restrictions placed on gatherings that have affected our places of worship, limiting how we function. We have received a range of enquiries today regarding the question of whether it is permissible to conduct the live streaming of worship and sermons in church buildings. There are apparent inconsistencies between the advice we have received from QLD Health and the view taken by Queensland Police. We are seeking to get clarity on this issue and will update you again as soon as possible.

I would also mention that as of today the QB office is in lock down and will not be physically accessible to those who are not office staff. Some QB Staff are working from home while others in particular support roles may be on leave. Most Staff can still be contacted by email or telephone. Be assured that we are working hard to continue to serve the movement in these challenging times.

And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests.

With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people. Ephesians 6:18
